

prt
55
10
12
2
128
105
403
51
2
1
9
3
31
41
26
22
1
1
6
10
4
1
0
46
53
21
2
204
3043
1512
2207
66
11
114
8
162
391
1
1
13
8974
356
80
50
10
54
121
36
8
11
25
837
1141
121,431
27
918.15
108.97
040.00
ub

NEW OFFICERS . . . New student body leaders at Narbonne High School chat following announcement of their election in a vote held last Wednesday. From left to right are Henry Brink, senior high president; Shirley Carlson, Girls League president; and Jim Flagg, junior high president.

Henry Brink Elected New Narbonne High President

Henry Brink is the newly-elected Associate Student Body president of Narbonne High School as a result of a closely contested election held Wednesday. Henry, a B-12, is the present vice-president and lists among his many activities: Vigilantes, B-football captain, and band major. He will be surrounded by females when he takes office next semester. Bonnie Domoznoske and Kay Francis are the new vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively.

Delores Knutilla is the twelfth grade council member. Eleventh grade council member is Gary Robinson and Dexter Goodell is tenth grade council member. A run-off was to be held Friday between Victor Martinov and Tommy Robins for chief justice. The three associate justices are Bob Eason, Anita Shaheen and Linda Wiese.

Chosen to fill the shoes of Flora Hammetman, Girls League president, is Shirley Carlson. Jim Flagg will take over the tough job of Junior High president.

Leading Narbonne in songs and spirit will be the song team composed of Delores Knutilla, Nadine Madrid, and Eileen Burrell.

Assisting the newly-elected Girls League president will be Pat Gilbert as vice-president. For secretary, a run-off was scheduled between Joyce Endo and Jackie Zittle; and for historian Darlene Cummings and Virginia Connor were due to battle it out. Joy Callaway will handle the financial part of Girls League as the new treasurer. Pat McNease was elected as the Junior High representative of Girls League.

Members of the senior high honorary service clubs are as follows:

Jane Addams: Jeraline Borling, Eileen Burrell, Zona Hammond, Lorna Thompson, Shirley Carlson, Gloria McCann, Jana Phifer, and Betty Wilson. Vigilantes: John Anderson, Frank Burton, Jimmy Gallagher, Tommy Robbins, and Jimmy Wright.

Ladies: Barbara Goar, Phyllis Hasselbaker, Mary Ellen Myers, Laura Tolbert, and Linda Wiese. Knights: Myron Blakesley, Tom Cappuccino, Rodell Decker, Fred

You'll Get The Best Buys In Town By Shopping From The Torrance Herald Display Ad!

New Treatment For Arthritis And Muscle Pain

TORRANCE — If you have been suffering for years from arthritis and muscle pain, do not despair. Dr. Larson's new application of the latest in scientific therapy is promising new hope for relief of the crippling torture of arthritis and rheumatic conditions. You are invited to come in for a complete examination to discover the true cause of your condition. Price for this examination is only $3.00. Phone FAirfax 8-3738 before coming to offices of Dr. R. A. Larson, D. C., Ph. C., 1110 Sartori Avenue, Torrance (three doors north of Torrance Blvd.). —Adv.

El Camino Adds New Instructor

Assuming new duties on the campus of El Camino College is John Forsberg, who will serve as assistant director of business under Director Carl C. Artwedson. The new El Camino employee comes to Southern California directly from Omaha. He is married, and has two children. Commenting upon the addition to the college staff, President Forrest G. Murdock said: "Growth of the college has brought new demands on the business staff. The addition of

RAINFALL RANGE
Rainfall along the Pacific Coast ranges from two inches in the California desert area up to 100 inches in parts of Northern Washington.

AREAS COMPARED
Area of the Republic of Panama is slightly smaller than the State of Maine. It is 425 miles long and varies in width from 31 miles to 118 miles.

Mr. Forsberg makes it possible for him to assist instruction and other phases of college life."

JANUARY 10, 1954 TORRANCE HERALD Three

Fred E. Karr Promoted To Corporal in Korea
Fred E. Karr, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Karr, 1350 W. 228th St., was recently promoted to corporal while serving in Korea with the 3rd Infantry Division. Corporal Karr, a mechanic in Battery B of the division's 58th Field Artillery Battalion, entered the Army in November 1952 and arrived overseas in May.

-- FOR HIRE --
MAN WITH LIGHT PICKUP TRUCK
HOURLY RATES OR BY CONTRACT
Phone FAirfax 8-5252

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY COMFORT!

NOW

the most sensational pillow ever offered

Introducing for the first time the New

Dayton Koof foam standard pillow

REG. $6.95
Standard Size

NOW

$4.95

PAY ONLY

50¢ DOWN WEEK

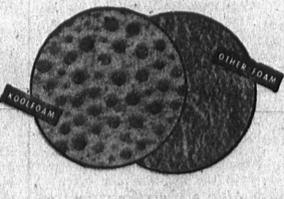

come in, see it, feel it, and "Enjoy the Rest of your life!"

ALL KOOL FOAM PILLOWS COME WITH FULL LENGTH ZIPPER FOR EASY REMOVAL AND LAUNDERING

Then you'll know instantly its petal soft smoothness is unequalled. The Dayton Koof foam Standard is new—assures fresh, clean and softer, more comfortable rest—never sags or bunches—allergy free—dust free.

It pays to buy a good foam pillow!

MAGNIFIED LABORATORY PHOTOS PROVES KOOLFOAM'S GREATER AIR FLOW — ASSURED BY THE PATENTED OPEN-PORE SURFACE.

Mail & phone orders filled

Please send me _____ Koof foam Pillows.

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

CITY _____ ZONE _____ STATE _____

Charge C.O.D. Check Enclosed

Employed by _____

I have an open acct. at _____

UNIVERSAL
FURNITURE STORES
1317 Sartori Ave., Torrance
FA 8-3073 Open Fri. 'til 9 p.m.

Church Rites To Open YM Week Locally

YMCA Week in Torrance will start in the following churches on Sunday, Jan. 17: First Methodist, Hope Evangelical and United Brethren, Central Evangelical and United Brethren, First Christian, and St. Andrew's Episcopal.

These churches will celebrate the 17th as YMCA Sunday, honoring the Torrance YMCA by using a special cover for their weekly church bulletin, according to Stan Roberts, executive secretary of the Torrance YMCA.

Lomita Marine Finishes Noncom Training Course

Marine Cpl. Norman Hallett, husband of Mrs. Gloria Hallett, of 119 Harbor Hills, Lomita, recently graduated from the 1st Marine Division's Noncommissioned Officers' School in Korea. The four-week course includes instruction in Marine Corps administration, military justice and field tactics. The school, designed to prepare junior men for promotion, emphasizes the responsibilities of non-commissioned officers in the field.

FOOD INDUSTRY

One out of every five adult Americans earns a living in the food industry, and one of every four plants is used for food processing.

RABBIT MEAT

In a normal year about 70 million pounds of wild rabbit are processed for food in the United States.

DELICATE SCALES

So delicately balanced are some modern scales that they will register the weight of a human hair.

Juvenile Fiction Next Topic for Manuscripters

Juvenile fiction will spearhead a year's program featuring well-known professional writers Friday, Jan. 15, when Southwest Manuscripters meet at 8 p.m. in Clark Stadium on Valley Dr., Hermosa Beach.

Taking the speaker's rostrum during the evening will be Janette Sebring Lowrey, Little Golden Book author, who will tell of her experiences in writing books for children.

Lomita Marine Finishes Noncom Training Course

Marine Cpl. Norman Hallett, husband of Mrs. Gloria Hallett, of 119 Harbor Hills, Lomita, recently graduated from the 1st Marine Division's Noncommissioned Officers' School in Korea. The four-week course includes instruction in Marine Corps administration, military justice and field tactics. The school, designed to prepare junior men for promotion, emphasizes the responsibilities of non-commissioned officers in the field.

FOOD INDUSTRY

One out of every five adult Americans earns a living in the food industry, and one of every four plants is used for food processing.

RABBIT MEAT

In a normal year about 70 million pounds of wild rabbit are processed for food in the United States.

DELICATE SCALES

So delicately balanced are some modern scales that they will register the weight of a human hair.

Juvenile Fiction Next Topic for Manuscripters

Juvenile fiction will spearhead a year's program featuring well-known professional writers Friday, Jan. 15, when Southwest Manuscripters meet at 8 p.m. in Clark Stadium on Valley Dr., Hermosa Beach.

Taking the speaker's rostrum during the evening will be Janette Sebring Lowrey, Little Golden Book author, who will tell of her experiences in writing books for children.

Lomita Marine Finishes Noncom Training Course

Marine Cpl. Norman Hallett, husband of Mrs. Gloria Hallett, of 119 Harbor Hills, Lomita, recently graduated from the 1st Marine Division's Noncommissioned Officers' School in Korea. The four-week course includes instruction in Marine Corps administration, military justice and field tactics. The school, designed to prepare junior men for promotion, emphasizes the responsibilities of non-commissioned officers in the field.

FOOD INDUSTRY

One out of every five adult Americans earns a living in the food industry, and one of every four plants is used for food processing.

RABBIT MEAT

In a normal year about 70 million pounds of wild rabbit are processed for food in the United States.

DELICATE SCALES

So delicately balanced are some modern scales that they will register the weight of a human hair.

Juvenile Fiction Next Topic for Manuscripters

Juvenile fiction will spearhead a year's program featuring well-known professional writers Friday, Jan. 15, when Southwest Manuscripters meet at 8 p.m. in Clark Stadium on Valley Dr., Hermosa Beach.

Taking the speaker's rostrum during the evening will be Janette Sebring Lowrey, Little Golden Book author, who will tell of her experiences in writing books for children.

Lomita Marine Finishes Noncom Training Course

Marine Cpl. Norman Hallett, husband of Mrs. Gloria Hallett, of 119 Harbor Hills, Lomita, recently graduated from the 1st Marine Division's Noncommissioned Officers' School in Korea. The four-week course includes instruction in Marine Corps administration, military justice and field tactics. The school, designed to prepare junior men for promotion, emphasizes the responsibilities of non-commissioned officers in the field.

FOOD INDUSTRY

One out of every five adult Americans earns a living in the food industry, and one of every four plants is used for food processing.

RABBIT MEAT

In a normal year about 70 million pounds of wild rabbit are processed for food in the United States.

DELICATE SCALES

So delicately balanced are some modern scales that they will register the weight of a human hair.

Juvenile Fiction Next Topic for Manuscripters

Juvenile fiction will spearhead a year's program featuring well-known professional writers Friday, Jan. 15, when Southwest Manuscripters meet at 8 p.m. in Clark Stadium on Valley Dr., Hermosa Beach.

Taking the speaker's rostrum during the evening will be Janette Sebring Lowrey, Little Golden Book author, who will tell of her experiences in writing books for children.

Lomita Marine Finishes Noncom Training Course

Marine Cpl. Norman Hallett, husband of Mrs. Gloria Hallett, of 119 Harbor Hills, Lomita, recently graduated from the 1st Marine Division's Noncommissioned Officers' School in Korea. The four-week course includes instruction in Marine Corps administration, military justice and field tactics. The school, designed to prepare junior men for promotion, emphasizes the responsibilities of non-commissioned officers in the field.

FOOD INDUSTRY

One out of every five adult Americans earns a living in the food industry, and one of every four plants is used for food processing.

RABBIT MEAT

In a normal year about 70 million pounds of wild rabbit are processed for food in the United States.

DELICATE SCALES

So delicately balanced are some modern scales that they will register the weight of a human hair.

Juvenile Fiction Next Topic for Manuscripters

Juvenile fiction will spearhead a year's program featuring well-known professional writers Friday, Jan. 15, when Southwest Manuscripters meet at 8 p.m. in Clark Stadium on Valley Dr., Hermosa Beach.

Taking the speaker's rostrum during the evening will be Janette Sebring Lowrey, Little Golden Book author, who will tell of her experiences in writing books for children.

Lomita Marine Finishes Noncom Training Course

Marine Cpl. Norman Hallett, husband of Mrs. Gloria Hallett, of 119 Harbor Hills, Lomita, recently graduated from the 1st Marine Division's Noncommissioned Officers' School in Korea. The four-week course includes instruction in Marine Corps administration, military justice and field tactics. The school, designed to prepare junior men for promotion, emphasizes the responsibilities of non-commissioned officers in the field.

FOOD INDUSTRY

One out of every five adult Americans earns a living in the food industry, and one of every four plants is used for food processing.

RABBIT MEAT

In a normal year about 70 million pounds of wild rabbit are processed for food in the United States.

DELICATE SCALES

So delicately balanced are some modern scales that they will register the weight of a human hair.

Juvenile Fiction Next Topic for Manuscripters

Juvenile fiction will spearhead a year's program featuring well-known professional writers Friday, Jan. 15, when Southwest Manuscripters meet at 8 p.m. in Clark Stadium on Valley Dr., Hermosa Beach.

Taking the speaker's rostrum during the evening will be Janette Sebring Lowrey, Little Golden Book author, who will tell of her experiences in writing books for children.

Lomita Marine Finishes Noncom Training Course

Marine Cpl. Norman Hallett, husband of Mrs. Gloria Hallett, of 119 Harbor Hills, Lomita, recently graduated from the 1st Marine Division's Noncommissioned Officers' School in Korea. The four-week course includes instruction in Marine Corps administration, military justice and field tactics. The school, designed to prepare junior men for promotion, emphasizes the responsibilities of non-commissioned officers in the field.

FOOD INDUSTRY

One out of every five adult Americans earns a living in the food industry, and one of every four plants is used for food processing.

RABBIT MEAT

In a normal year about 70 million pounds of wild rabbit are processed for food in the United States.

DELICATE SCALES

So delicately balanced are some modern scales that they will register the weight of a human hair.

Juvenile Fiction Next Topic for Manuscripters

Juvenile fiction will spearhead a year's program featuring well-known professional writers Friday, Jan. 15, when Southwest Manuscripters meet at 8 p.m. in Clark Stadium on Valley Dr., Hermosa Beach.

Taking the speaker's rostrum during the evening will be Janette Sebring Lowrey, Little Golden Book author, who will tell of her experiences in writing books for children.

Lomita Marine Finishes Noncom Training Course

Marine Cpl. Norman Hallett, husband of Mrs. Gloria Hallett, of 119 Harbor Hills, Lomita, recently graduated from the 1st Marine Division's Noncommissioned Officers' School in Korea. The four-week course includes instruction in Marine Corps administration, military justice and field tactics. The school, designed to prepare junior men for promotion, emphasizes the responsibilities of non-commissioned officers in the field.

FOOD INDUSTRY

One out of every five adult Americans earns a living in the food industry, and one of every four plants is used for food processing.

RABBIT MEAT

In a normal year about 70 million pounds of wild rabbit are processed for food in the United States.

DELICATE SCALES

So delicately balanced are some modern scales that they will register the weight of a human hair.

Juvenile Fiction Next Topic for Manuscripters

Juvenile fiction will spearhead a year's program featuring well-known professional writers Friday, Jan. 15, when Southwest Manuscripters meet at 8 p.m. in Clark Stadium on Valley Dr., Hermosa Beach.

Taking the speaker's rostrum during the evening will be Janette Sebring Lowrey, Little Golden Book author, who will tell of her experiences in writing books for children.

Lomita Marine Finishes Noncom Training Course

Marine Cpl. Norman Hallett, husband of Mrs. Gloria Hallett, of 119 Harbor Hills, Lomita, recently graduated from the 1st Marine Division's Noncommissioned Officers' School in Korea. The four-week course includes instruction in Marine Corps administration, military justice and field tactics. The school, designed to prepare junior men for promotion, emphasizes the responsibilities of non-commissioned officers in the field.

FOOD INDUSTRY

One out of every five adult Americans earns a living in the food industry, and one of every four plants is used for food processing.

RABBIT MEAT

In a normal year about 70 million pounds of wild rabbit are processed for food in the United States.

DELICATE SCALES

So delicately balanced are some modern scales that they will register the weight of a human hair.

Juvenile Fiction Next Topic for Manuscripters

Juvenile fiction will spearhead a year's program featuring well-known professional writers Friday, Jan. 15, when Southwest Manuscripters meet at 8 p.m. in Clark Stadium on Valley Dr., Hermosa Beach.

Taking the speaker's rostrum during the evening will be Janette Sebring Lowrey, Little Golden Book author, who will tell of her experiences in writing books for children.

Lomita Marine Finishes Noncom Training Course

Marine Cpl. Norman Hallett, husband of Mrs. Gloria Hallett, of 119 Harbor Hills, Lomita, recently graduated from the 1st Marine Division's Noncommissioned Officers' School in Korea. The four-week course includes instruction in Marine Corps administration, military justice and field tactics. The school, designed to prepare junior men for promotion, emphasizes the responsibilities of non-commissioned officers in the field.

FOOD INDUSTRY

One out of every five adult Americans earns a living in the food industry, and one of every four plants is used for food processing.

RABBIT MEAT

In a normal year about 70 million pounds of wild rabbit are processed for food in the United States.

DELICATE SCALES

So delicately balanced are some modern scales that they will register the weight of a human hair.

Juvenile Fiction Next Topic for Manuscripters

Juvenile fiction will spearhead a year's program featuring well-known professional writers Friday, Jan. 15, when Southwest Manuscripters meet at 8 p.m. in Clark Stadium on Valley Dr., Hermosa Beach.

Taking the speaker's rostrum during the evening will be Janette Sebring Lowrey, Little Golden Book author, who will tell of her experiences in writing books for children.

Lomita Marine Finishes Noncom Training Course

Marine Cpl. Norman Hallett, husband of Mrs. Gloria Hallett, of 119 Harbor Hills, Lomita, recently graduated from the 1st Marine Division's Noncommissioned Officers' School in Korea. The four-week course includes instruction in Marine Corps administration, military justice and field tactics. The school, designed to prepare junior men for promotion, emphasizes the responsibilities of non-commissioned officers in the field.

FOOD INDUSTRY

One out of every five adult Americans earns a living in the food industry, and one of every four plants is used for food processing.

RABBIT MEAT

In a normal year about 70 million pounds of wild rabbit are processed for food in the United States.

DELICATE SCALES

So delicately balanced are some modern scales that they will register the weight of a human hair.

Juvenile Fiction Next Topic for Manuscripters

Juvenile fiction will spearhead a year's program featuring well-known professional writers Friday, Jan. 15, when Southwest Manuscripters meet at 8 p.m. in Clark Stadium on Valley Dr., Hermosa Beach.

Taking the speaker's rostrum during the evening will be Janette Sebring Lowrey, Little Golden Book author, who will tell of her experiences in writing books for children.

Lomita Marine Finishes Noncom Training Course

Marine Cpl. Norman Hallett, husband of Mrs. Gloria Hallett, of 119 Harbor Hills, Lomita, recently graduated from the 1st Marine Division's Noncommissioned Officers' School in Korea. The four-week course includes instruction in Marine Corps administration, military justice and field tactics. The school, designed to prepare junior men for promotion, emphasizes the responsibilities of non-commissioned officers in the field.

FOOD INDUSTRY

One out of every five adult Americans earns a living in the food industry, and one of every four plants is used for food processing.

RABBIT MEAT

In a normal year about 70 million pounds of wild rabbit are processed for food in the United States.

DELICATE SCALES

So delicately balanced are some modern scales that they will register the weight of a human hair.

Juvenile Fiction Next Topic for Manuscripters

Juvenile fiction will spearhead a year's program featuring well-known professional writers Friday, Jan. 15, when Southwest Manuscripters meet at 8 p.m. in Clark Stadium on Valley Dr., Hermosa Beach.

Taking the speaker's rostrum during the evening will be Janette Sebring Lowrey, Little Golden Book author, who will tell of her experiences in writing books for children.

Lomita Marine Finishes Noncom Training Course

Marine Cpl. Norman Hallett, husband of Mrs. Gloria Hallett, of 119 Harbor Hills, Lomita, recently graduated from the 1st Marine Division's Noncommissioned Officers' School in Korea. The four-week course includes instruction in Marine Corps administration, military justice and field tactics. The school, designed to prepare junior men for promotion, emphasizes the responsibilities of non-commissioned officers in the field.

FOOD INDUSTRY

One out of every five adult Americans earns a living in the food industry, and one of every four plants is used for food processing.

RABBIT MEAT

In a normal year about 70 million pounds of wild rabbit are processed for food in the United States.

DELICATE SCALES

So delicately balanced are some modern scales that they will register the weight of a human hair.

Juvenile Fiction Next Topic for Manuscripters

Juvenile fiction will spearhead a year's program featuring well-known professional writers Friday, Jan. 15, when Southwest Manuscripters meet at 8 p.m. in Clark Stadium on Valley Dr., Hermosa Beach.